

Investment Forum Program for Wednesday, February 21 at 11:30

Future Meeting Schedule

OLLI has extended the Winter Program for one week to make up for snow days when classes were canceled. Arrangements for the Investment Forum to continue meeting during the period before the Spring Program begins are pending.

This Week's Program

There is an abundance of topics for the group to discuss this week. A variety of topics will be offered and discussions will be selected on the basis of vocal response.

The Forum Website

If the continuing winter weather is leading to boredom, please indulge in the Forum Website at www.olligmu.org/~finforum/. Efforts are made to post a selection of topics under Member Suggestions.
