

INVESTMENT FORUM AGENDA FOR WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 2021 10:30AM

We will be meeting weekly as a “club” this week and January 20, also at 10:30AM. The Winter Term begins on January 27, 2021, at 11:50AM.

The Zoom link for this week is 861 1181 9898, Passcode 468378. Watch for any notices from OLLI of the Zoom link and use those, if different from this one.

Markets. Another up week, despite news events that could have been market downers: disturbances in DC, Senate flip, awful pandemic numbers, slow vaccine roll out, and jobs losses. Takeaways (my opinion only.) Markets are forward looking and expecting a rebound (V shaped recovery) with vaccinations and pent up consumer spending and hiring; additional stimulus; the market is not particularly concerned about the new administration and unified control of the government; and finally, the market welcomes less drama and more stability.

For the first week of 2021, the DOW was up 1.6%; the S&P was up 1.8%; the NASDAQ was up 2.4%; and the Russell 2000 was up 5.9% (!). The usual attention getters - Tesla, tech, ARK funds, and Bitcoin, continued their runs. Anybody see bubbles or irrational exuberance? Inflation, with rising long term interest rates are getting noticed.

Fourth quarter 2020 earnings kick off this week.

Topics this Week

What are the charts telling us? We all look at stock price charts, moving averages, all with their own jargon. But what are they really saying? Gloria Loew will look at the charts, something she did for us some years ago.

Mortgage Funds. Time permitting, I will look at mortgages and mortgage backed securities, and two mortgage investments, spanning the risk spectrum, and combining them (buying both) to control risk and boost yield.

Bob Baker will look at the Buy/Sell list.
