Each group belongs to APCUG, the Association of Personal Computer User Groups, which holds national conferences around the USA. APCUG's Virtual Technology Conferences in webinar format are held quarterly on Saturday afternoons. Members may attend from the comfort of their home, and watch presentations from a selection of six to eight sessions in two tracks. The sessions are recorded, and available for viewing at another time.

Meeting Agenda

Meet folks with similar interests in PCs and digital technologies. Our meetings include social opportunities before and at breaks between presentations.

A Q&A session for attendees experiencing hardware and software computer problems – usually 20 minutes.

A Learn in 30 session with topics presented at a novice level, or as a series of tips. Topics may address issues within an application or helpful hints for utilizing specific programs addressing a unique task.

A major presentation or product review on a topic of interest, like networking, genealogy, High Dynamic Range photography, how to scan slides, photos, security on the Internet, for example. Each presentation incorporates a Q&A session.

Meetings conclude with each user group conducting a door prize drawing.

Some meetings employ a webinar tool to allow a guest speaker or vendor to deliver a live presentation to the group from a remote location.

Videoconferencing equipment and cloud meeting services are employed to allow members to attend meetings from home or other locations with Internet access. Recordings of prior meetings are available to members.
